Stage 3. Nobody Wanted to Play – Stories

Nobody wanted to play.

Will was cross.

He went to the park.

He played on the horse.
"I am a cowboy," he said.

Whoops!
Stage 3. Nobody Wanted to Play - Stories

Look at this word: fireman
Can you see the little words inside it?

fire man
fire man
fireman

Look for little words inside these big words.
Write the little words under the big words.

rocket
spaceman
juggler

cowboy
see-saw ladder

horse spiderman
wall

Work check
Four of these groups of words are sentences.

Wilf was cross. wanted to play. He climbed up the Wilf played on the am a spaceman,’ he said. He played on the see-saw. He went to the park. ‘I am a spiderman,’ he said.

Write the four sentences and draw the pictures.
Make a list of the things Wilf went on in the park.

........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................

Write about a trip to the park.
You can use the sentences about Wilf to help you.

........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................